

"Hosting the Indiana State Festival Association Queen"

The current reigning Indiana State Festivals Association (ISFA) Queen is available for appearances at your festival or event. If you would like to host the queen and have her attend your festival, you are required to meet the following guidelines established by ISFA.

The host festival agrees to pay for and provide the queen and her escort:

- Meals during her stay
- Overnight lodging if applicable

All queen requests must be approved prior to her appearance, please contact Chris Benson, ISFA Queen Coordinator at 260.569.9391 or by e-mail at cbenson@hoosierlink.net. The Queen will make appearances as her schedule permits. ISFA agrees to pay the reigning queen mileage expenses of $0.40 per mile to all approved festivals and events representing ISFA.

ISFA Queens Responsibilities

The reigning ISFA Queen is obligated to attend the ISFA Fall Convention. ISFA agrees to provide a room for the Queen Friday and Saturday night during the convention. The reigning Queen will provide a monthly update of her appearances and activities related to ISFA approved business. All current ISFA members who have a queen pageant and meet the guidelines are eligible to enter their reigning queen in the ISFA Scholarship Pageant held annually during the ISFA Fall Convention. If you would like to enter your queen, please contact Chris Benson at 260.569.9391 or cbenson@hoosierlink.net or complete the application and return it to:

Chris Benson, Pageant Chairman
1540 Branch St.
Wabash, IN 46992