Dear Indiana Travelers and Festival Fans,

Here in Indiana, festival season never stops. From car shows to music festivals to county fairs, there is something for everyone in the Hoosier state.

The 2020 Indiana Festival Guide® is the best source for choosing from one of the state’s hundreds of festivals. So pick your favorites, mark your calendars and enjoy all that Indiana has to offer.

On behalf of Indiana Tourism and the Indiana State Festivals Association, we would like to thank you for choosing Indiana as your festival destination all year long.

Safe travels!

Mission Statement:

The Indiana State Festivals Association® (ISFA) is a non-profit organization created to “Empower Indiana Festivals, Events and Organizations through education, networking and leadership.” ISFA is devoted to promoting and enhancing festivals and events throughout the state. —ISFA, 211 W Pennsylvania St., Rockville, IN 47872

2020 Convention: Jan. 3-5

The ISFA Scholarship Pageant and Annual Convention will be held in partnership with the Indiana Association of Fairs.IndianaFairsandfestivals.org

2020 ISFA Spring Workshop: Apr. 18

Find information about the ISFA annual convention and Spring Workshop at IndianaFestivals.net.

About the Cover:

Visit French Lick West Baden is the home to numerous festivals and events happening throughout the year, including the thrilling Block Bash each September that brings the Nation’s top chainsaw artisans to town to compete live before auctioning off their “cutting edge art.”

ISFA gives a heartfelt tribute to Betty Mook

Betty was an ISFA Treasurer, co-founder of the ISFA Scholarship Pageant and long-time board member of Harvest Homecoming in New Albany. Betty is deeply missed by her ISFA friends. in the heart of it all
